WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 -President Taft and friends of the Administration are future will depend largely upon the outthat if the Republicans are badly beaten

They do not believe, however, that a Republican defeat in New York State will in any way reflect upon the Taft Administration. Issues there are too clearly drawn on Roosevelt and the things he stands for. In Ohio, though, the President himself has deliberately set forward the issue that the election is to be either an indorsement or a repudiation of the Taft Administration, and if Gov. THE NEW YORK COUNTY BAR REAFFIRMS

This Year Its Endorsement of

JOHN J. DELANY

Democratic Candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court

THOUSANDS of the members of the New York County Bar, without regard to political connections, approve and endorse the nomination of JOHN J. DELANY, Democratic Candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court.

F him the Bar Association is on record in the following testimonial: "In professional attainments and personal character, a fit candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court and entitled to receive the endorsement of the Association."

AND THIS ENDORSEMENT HAS BEEN REAFFIRMED THIS YEAR.

Mr. Delany has rendered distinguished service as Corporation Counsel, and has had a long and honorable career in the practice of law in this city.

The test of investigation has proved his fidelity to his trust—as witnessed by the letter of Mr. R. FULTON CUTTING, former President of the Citizens Union, and published in every New York newspaper on May 28th, 1909, after a thorough examination had been made of the records of the Corporation Counsel's office.

The following is a quotation from the letter referred to and is particularly interesting at this juncture:

"The result of this examination further shows that your administration of your office was in accordance with your convictions as to the best interests of the City and with fidelity to your official duty. Nothing ascertained during this investigation would justify me in believing that in your conduct of the office regard was had to any interests but to those of the City."

TO THE VOTERS:

If you don't vote a straight Democratic ticket, place a cross (X) before the name of John J. Delany for Justice of the Supreme Court, in the second column of the ballot.
